REPORTS FOR NOVEMBER 1916.

---:o:---

The reports received from the Inspector General of Police and the Deputy Commissioners of Districts are put up herewith.

2. The situation continues to be normal and satisfactory.

3. The Inspector General of Police refers to certain disputes between Mahomadans and Hindus in Molkalmuru on the 5th October and 17th November 1916 in connection with a Hindu procession and states that these incidents bear no political significance.

4. The reports of the previous month are also put up.

CONFIDENTIAL

Office of the
Inspector General of Police in Mysore,

Dated Bangalore, 5--12-1916.

For the month of November 1916.

All the Districts report that nothing unusual or untoward occurred during the month, and that everything continues normal and satisfactory.

On the 5th October 1916, there was a small disturbance at Molakalmuru, where the Mohamedans obstructed a procession of horses, on the Mahanavami day, on account of a dispute about Hindu processions passing along their mosque, but it was effectively and promptly dealt with. The feeling, however, seems to have been kept alive by certain outside influences, which resulted in another sudden disturbance on the 17th November 1916, when the Mohamedans stopped a Hindu procession, and committed some assaults. There seem to have been then some riotous acts by both the communities, but the matter has been well handled by the local authorities, and the wrong-doers on both sides have been apprehended, and are now undergoing their trial in Courts. These incidents are, however, of no political significance.
